The Pacific States Saving and Loan Company closed its Fresno branch in the middle of 1935. At the present time the company is not in a position to make any loans anywhere because of its still remaining large number of withdrawal notices on file. It is planned, however, that the company will be in such condition that new loans will again be made after February 1, 1937. Many residential properties in Fresno were traded for business properties in and about San Francisco. (For further details concerning the history of this company, see Survey of Metropolitan Los Angeles, Appendix page 188A-192A.)
