In addition to the deterring influence of cost mentioned by Mr. Giles, it is believed that the ignorance and inertia of a large proportion of the property holders will also prove a handicap which will at least slow up the program which he outlines.