RELIGIOUS CENSUS OF SAN FRANCISCO TAKEN IN FEBRUARY, 1934

410,902 individuals interviewed. 67% of total population.

108,654 additional individuals living in homes where workers called but were unable to make contact.

Of the individuals interviewed:

- 34,808 were Jewish, 8.4%
- 150,000 were Catholic, 36.5%
- 186,307 were Protestants, 45.1%
- 40,787 declined to state church responsibility or preference, 10.0%

In the homes called on, 10,133 individuals (all ages) were reported as attending Sunday School.

On the percentage basis of persons interviewed the population of San Francisco would be divided religiously as follows:

- 53,289 Jewish
- 231,553 Catholic
- 286,112 Protestant
- 63,440 No religion declared
- 634,394

The NEWS by its unbiased, non-prejudiced policy toward all races, religions, and political parties, enjoys in San Francisco the respect of intelligent persons in all fields of religion, race and political belief.