VI. MORTGAGE MORATORIA.

The Mortgage Moratorium, which was discussed in both the Los Angeles and San Diego survey reports, was re-enacted by the present session of the Legislature. As has been previously stated, this law is favorably regarded by the public, and the mortgagee institutions do not seem to feel that it is at all vicious. The law does not apply to the United States Government or its agencies.